

Nov. 4th Louisiana International Trade Day Participation Now Free

The World Trade Center New Orleans and Event Sponsors to open program to all businesses in Louisiana and the Gulf Coast Region at no charge.

October 30, 2020 – New Orleans, LA – In light of the historic and unprecedented challenges faced by regional businesses and trade professionals in 2020, including the recent damage incurred by Hurricane Zeta, the World Trade Center and its sponsors have decided to make participation in the November 4th 2020 Louisiana International Trade Day free to all businesses in Louisiana and the Gulf Coast region.

“As we look to make 2021 a new year of hope and growth for our Louisiana and Gulf Coast businesses, providing timely and valuable information is a requirement,” said Ed Webb, CEO of World Trade Center New Orleans. “We’re excited to partner with our state and regional businesses as we journey from ordinary to the extraordinary.... together!”
